

2011 Georgia Chamber Tax Forum – November 3, 2011

The 2011 Tax Forum will take place at the Renaissance Atlanta Midtown Hotel on Thursday, November 3. The event is scheduled to begin at 9:00am and end at 4:00pm. For Georgia to stay business-friendly and globally competitive, providing the right tax structure for all Georgians is critical to the long-term economic success of our state.

Agenda highlights for the forum include:

- Speakers from the Tax Foundation, Council on State Taxation and Georgia Public Policy Foundation.
- Panel discussions with House Majority Leader Larry O’Neal, Senate Majority Leader Chip Rogers, Representative Allen Peake and UGA Economist Dr. Jeff Humphreys and industry tax experts.
- Keynote luncheon presentation from Revenue Commissioner Doug MacGinnitie.
- Scheduled topics of discussion include reducing tax rates, providing more effective tax incentives, driving more predictability in state tax decisions and e-fairness regarding online sales tax collections.

The 2011 Georgia Chamber Tax Forum will serve as a great opportunity for business leaders, tax professionals, state officials and key stakeholders to discuss effective solutions to move Georgia toward a more streamlined and balanced tax system.
